

Community measures to prevent snakebite during COVID-19

COVID-19 will stretch health systems in snakebite endemic regions to their limits. Prevention of this neglected tropical disease that kills and seriously injures countless numbers every year is more important now than ever. Click through the graphics for information on community measures to prevent snakebite.

[tribulant_slideshow gallery_id=1]