

Europe Seeks to Expand Big Pharma Monopoly at Expense of Poor People, Warn NGOs Ahead of TTIP Talks (2014)

The European Commission is putting the interests of multinational drug companies above those of millions of people with no access to affordable life-saving medicines, warn Oxfam and Health Action International (HAI) Europe ahead of this week's round of free trade talks between the EU and US in Washington, DC.

Read more...