

Reflections on the World Health Assembly

Health Action International Executive Director, Dr Tim Reed, followed this week's unprecedented virtual World Health Assembly with great interest.

We asked Tim for some of his main takeaways from the two days of discussion, the response to COVID19 and the role of civil society.

Watch the video: